- 'Current economic conditions' was unchanged and 'future economic conditions' gained 1.6%.

ANZ Head of Australian Economics, David Plank, commented:

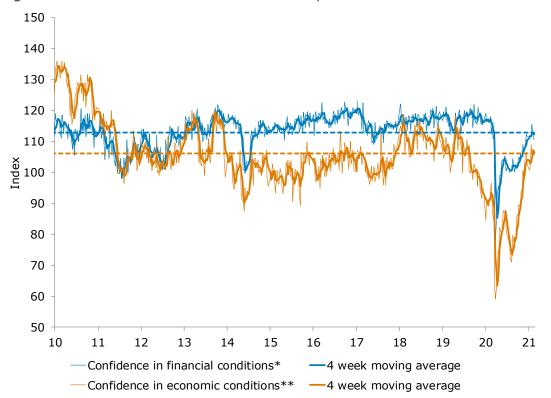

Consumer confidence has fallen for the third week in a row, despite the easing of lockdown restrictions in Victoria. Indeed, Regional Victoria led the fall with confidence deteriorating 10.5%. This could possibly be a catch-up to last week's surprise rise in regional sentiment. Within the detail, the softness in 'time to buy a major household item' is interesting given the current strength of the housing market. We would expect the two to go hand-in-hand, so the relative softness of this aspect of sentiment may not endure.
