ANZ named most trusted adviser and best bank for sustainable finance

ANZ's Institutional business has been named Most Trusted Adviser in the annual Australian Corporate Treasury Association (ACTA) awards, based on the 2023 large corporate relationship banking survey conducted by Peter Lee Associates.

The bank was also named the Best Bank for Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) Sustainability for the second consecutive year.

ANZ Managing Director, Institutional Australia & PNG, Tammy Medard said: "To be recognised by the market as most trusted adviser and best bank for ESG is a source of pride for us at ANZ, and a testament to the dedication and talent of our team.

"We value the trust our customers put in us as their banking partner and this recognition encourages us to continue to work hard to meet their needs."

ANZ Head of Sustainable Finance, Katharine Tapley said: "It's particularly pleasing to once again be recognised by Peter Lee as a leading environmental sustainability bank in the region.

"Demand for sustainable finance solutions continues to grow and we're encouraged to see our clients say they value our analysis, advisory and solutions in this space. It's a competitive market and we are always striving to improve our offering, supporting customers as they embrace opportunities in the transition to net zero emissions."

ANZ has a dedicated sustainable finance team operating globally across Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Hong Kong, London and New York.

The team has technical sustainability expertise and extensive experience across multiple banking products and industry sectors.
